Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the limitations of independent claims 1,11,20 and claim 17-18: "...the first state and a second state..." must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

Art Unit: 2629

2. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required:

The limitations of independent claims 1,11,20 and claim 17-18: "...the first state and a second state..." are not described in the relation to the timing or the timing diagram.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 1-16,18-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The limitations of independent claims 1,11,20 and claim 17-18: "...the first state and a second state..." are not described in the relation to the timing or the timing diagram or shown in the Figures.

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 2629

6. Claim 11-16,20-24 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

For independent claims 11,20 it is not clear how the first circuit provides a current of $(1 + I/N) I$ during the first and second states of the voltage signal?

Notice, it is not clear how transistor 28 in Figure 1 could be turn on (paragraph 022, line 5)?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

8. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipate by Choi et al. (US 2004/0056828 A1).

Choi et al. teaches an electroluminescence device (paragraph 0002) comprising:

a plurality of scan lines (fig. 3, Gq-1,Gq);

a plurality of data lines (fig. 3, Dp,Dp+1); and an array of pixels, each of the pixels being disposed near an

a first circuit further comprising a first transistor, a second transistor and a capacitor, the capacitor including a first terminal coupled to a power supply, the first transistor including a gate electrode coupled to a second terminal of the capacitor, and the second transistor including a gate electrode receiving the voltage signal (fig. 3, items T3-T4, Cst, paragraph 0035);

a second circuit further comprising a third transistor and a fourth transistor, the third transistor including a gate electrode coupled to a gate electrode of the fourth transistor (fig. 3, items T5,T2,paragraph 0041); and a fifth transistor further comprising a gate electrode receiving the voltage signal, and an electrode receiving a current signal provided over a corresponding data line (fig. 3, item T1, paragraph 0035).
